

GERIATRIC NURSING CARE OVERVIEW

This program covers foundational and advanced elderly care in residential settings.

Participants will develop competencies in mobilizing bedridden patients safely and comfortably.

Training includes nutrition planning, hydration monitoring, and assisting patients with dysphagia.

Special emphasis is given to dementia care, validation techniques, and creating a supportive environment.

Caregivers learn palliative comfort measures, pain scale observation, and supporting grieving family members.